Above the Shop Studios releases DVD of Two Toledos

Above the Shop Studios today announces the DVD release of the film Two Toledos. On sale now through the website twotoledos.com and at select stores including The Original Sub Shop & Deli at 402 Broadway.

In an exploration of cultural exchange through art, documentary filmmakers Jacob David and Joel Washing focus on two distinctly different cities with the same name.

Visually rich cinematography of the Toledo, Ohio skyline and the ancient architecture of Toledo, Spain illuminate the physical differences of the cities, while in-depth interviews with artists show the deep similarities between the cultures through the universal human need to create.

Two Toledos, the debut film of documentary filmmakers Jacob David and Joel Washing, grew out of a visit to the Iberian Peninsula in 2001, where they studied the Spanish language. David and Washing are co-owners of Above the Shop Studios, in Toledo, Ohio. They have made films together since the mid 1990's.

The DVD features the full documentary as seen on PBS WGTE TV30, the trailer, and a large slideshow of photos from the production in Toledo, Spain and Toledo, Ohio.
